

Customer Information

Company Name:

Contact:

Address:

Phone:

City:

Province:

Postal Code:

E-mail:

Survey Completed by:

Survey Date:

Distributor Name:

Department:

1- Storing and Handling Oils, Chemicals and Other Potential Hazardous Materials

What type of liquid will be absorbed?

- 1
- 2
- 3

How are they being stored?

- 1
- 2
- 3

What is the condition of the liquid storage containers, location & applicable secondary containment system?

Containers:

Location:

Secondary Containment:

Is there an emergency spill response procedure for the facility? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Please provide a copy if possible.

Summary of material handling and storage procedures currently in use.

2 - Types of Spill Control Equipment Currently Used

Absorbents:

- | | | | |
|--|--------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Pads | <input type="checkbox"/> Rolls | <input type="checkbox"/> Pillows | <input type="checkbox"/> Socks |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Drip pans | <input type="checkbox"/> Drum Covers | <input type="checkbox"/> Granular | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Drain Protection,
please specify | | | |

Current Supplier

- | | |
|---|-----------|
| 1 | Model No. |
| 2 | Model No. |
| 3 | Model No. |

Spill Kits:

Location of Spill Kits:

3 - Site Drainage

Drains provide a primary pathway for contaminants to leave site and migrate into the environment. It is therefore critical to environmental security that a full understanding of the site drainage is achieved.

Is there an onsite drainage system?

What is the pathway the liquid will follow?

Where does it drain too?

What are the locations where spills are most likely to occur?